Membership

Join our community of over 250 members today and you'll be part of the Cambridgeshire ACRE family, united in our vision to make rural Cambridgeshire and Peterborough a great place for people to live, work and visit.

Become an Individual Member

For just £10 a year, we offer a membership for individuals who want to be part of the Cambridgeshire ACRE family and support our work with rural communities.

Become a Group Member

For £57 a year, we offer a membership for voluntary and community organisations, community building management committees and local councils.

Demonstrate your support for our work with rural communities and, in return, receive our advice and support and take part in the many activities and projects we run across the County.

Become a Statutory Agency / Business Member

Does your organisation, agency or business work in, or with, rural communities? For just £76 a year, you can join Cambridgeshire ACRE.

Your backing furthers our ability to give practical support to community groups and local councils.

Membership

All members benefit from:

- The opportunity to attend our Annual General Meeting to hear about our work and to vote upon matters affecting the running of the charity.
- Invitations to Cambridgeshire ACRE's many events and training sessions.
- The knowledge that they are supporting the work of a well-respected charity that has a long history of working with Cambridgeshire and Peterborough's rural communities so they might realise their aims and ambitions.

Group members also receive:

- Access to our telephone and email advice service providing general community information and advice for volunteer trustees or parish councillors and clerks on community buildings management, asset transfer, community rights, neighbourhood planning, affordable rural housing, funding and making applications, community consultation, volunteer management and governance matters. Advice is available from 9am – 5pm, Monday – Friday.
- Access to a wide range of specialist, online resources.
- A listing for any community building in your community on our venue-finder website <http://www.hallsforhire.org.uk>.
