Cambridgeshire ACRE is a membership organisation and our services are now only available to members.

Exclusive services and benefits available to members

- Telephone and email advice service - Available from 9am – 5pm, Monday - Friday for general community information and advice for volunteer trustees or parish councillors on community buildings management, asset transfer, community rights, parish and neighbourhood planning, affordable rural housing, funding and making applications, community consultation, volunteer management and governance issues.
- Additional support with resolving complex issues.
- Access to a wide range of online resources.
- A listing for a community building(s) on our website www.hallsforhire.org.uk plus advice on how to market your community facility.
- Access to a range of wider support networks, such as the ACRE Village Halls Network with publications and briefings.
- A monthly e-news bulletin with the opportunity to promote your organisation or community's events or news.
- Priority invitation to Cambridgeshire ACRE's events, training sessions and our Annual General Meeting.

You will also know that you are supporting a rural charity that has a long history of supporting Cambridgeshire and Peterborough's rural communities.
